Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

While OATS itself delivers Senior Planet programs in person in several key US markets, the organization offers a unique licensing program that enables hundreds of qualified community-based sites to provide in-person Senior Planet experiences to older residents in their local urban, suburban, and rural communities in more than 30 states across America.

Below is a summary of the key accomplishments of OATS in 2023.

2023 Key Projects:

Total Engagements

Senior Planet provided over 580,000 engagements to new and returning participants through our virtual, in-person, and licensing programs.

Digital Skills Ready@50+ , a collaboration with AARP Foundation and funded by Google, helped nearly 25,000 low-income older adults build skills to find jobs, change careers, and explore entrepreneurship.

Fitness offerings continued to be popular among older adult participants. OATS began live-streaming wellness classes on the Senior Planet YouTube channel and celebrated another year of the Senior Planet Sponsored Athlete program.

Senior Planet centers in Plattsburgh, NYC, and Denver marked their first full year of operation since the pandemic, while continuing in-person training through partners in Texas, Maryland, and California. The organization also continued delivering in-person programs in collaboration with AARP state offices across the country.

In November 2023, Senior Planet held a launch event to celebrate the addition of its newest center in Miami. When it opens in March 2024, Senior Planet Miami will offer area residents continuous opportunities to access, use, and learn about new and emerging technologies and how to harness their power to improve their lives and communities - all in a safe and welcoming environment.

Expansion of the Senior Planet Licensing Program:

The Senior Planet licensing program powerfully equips local organizations across the country with the tools to help older adults access technology and use it to enhance their lives. Through an adaptable program model, the Senior Planet licensing structure works with community-based organizations to develop local trainers to deliver Senior Planet's proprietary curriculum and bring Senior Planet's world-class programs to older adults in their area. In 2023, the Senior Planet Licensing program grew to over 350 licensing sites nationwide, covering 30 states.

Thought Leadership Highlights (speaking engagements):

which provides discounted internet service to low-income Americans. In coordination with AARP State Offices across the country, OATS's work around digital equity continues to help older adults learn about low-cost internet options through eight "tele-town halls" in California, New York, Connecticut, Nebraska, Rhode Island, New Mexico, and two in Georgia, reaching a total of 7,437 older households. OATS largest conference presence in 2023 was at CES and ASA. At both conferences, OATS took a multi-faceted approach: learning, presenting, and sharing information, along with Senior Planet participants.

At CES 2023 - OATS expanded its presence at this annual tech conference to include a booth within AARP's AgeTech Collaborative area and the hosting of live Senior Planet classes from the tradeshow floor.

By teaming up with Discover Live, OATS explored a new way to bring virtual experiences to Senior Planet participants by live-streaming two events, including a tour of AARP's AgeTech Collaborative booth and a Q&A session featuring OATS executive director Tom Kamber and AARP SVP of Innovation & Product Development, Andy Miller.

OATS identified cutting-edge technologies and published an article featuring startups from AARP's AgeTech Collaborative, focused on products and solutions that will create transformative solutions to aging better in the modern world.

At ASA On Aging 2023 Conference - OATS sponsored the AgeTech stage at the nation's largest multi-disciplinary conference on aging, attended by nonprofits, human services and aging-related government entities, startups, and aging service providers.

to review the Code of Conduct, formally acknowledge their understanding of the Code, and disclose any real or potential conflicts of interest.

Disclosures are reviewed by appropriate management (or in the case of a board member, the Board Chair, and if necessary, the Board of Directors) and the Ethics & Compliance Office. The appropriate resolution plan is implemented (for example, recusal from participating in any deliberations and decisions relevant to the disclosure). The Ethics & Compliance Office monitors compliance with these requirements and ensures proper follow-up as needed.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a and b - Through its shared services agreement with AARP, OATS participates in AARP's enterprise-wide compensation reviews. AARP has a competitive position in the marketplace that considers relevant for-profit and not-for-profit data since this is the landscape in which AARP and its affiliates compete for talent. Establishing the appropriate compensation for positions and jobs considers external market pricing (where possible) from an independent, third-party compensation firm, internal criteria, and an individual's actual performance and contribution. Internal criteria are based on a standard approach that measures the internal value of positions, including: complexity and scope of responsibility, skill set and competencies, education and experience, and the reporting relationship of the position. An individual's actual performance and contribution is measured through AARP's performance management approach and then rewarded through AARP's annual base pay merit and incentive award programs. This process applies to all employees of OATS including the Executive Director.

The total compensation package for executive positions is regularly benchmarked against comparable executive positions using independently published compensation survey data and independent executive consultants.

The Executive Director's compensation package is reviewed and discussed by select board members and then approved by the Board Chair.

The compensation package for OATS executive management is also reviewed by the Board Chair.
